Auxiliary & Modal Verbs

Separate free answer sheet 1

මුලින් වැඩපත්‍රය කර පසුව පිළිතුරු සසඳන්න.

> Check the meaning and the grammar. Models are examples; accept other accurate answers where the task is open.

1. can

Can expresses present ability.

2. should

Should gives advice.

3. must not

Must not means the action is not allowed.

4. do not have to

Do not have to means there is no need to do it.

5. might

Might expresses an uncertain possibility.

6. She can speak English.

Use the base form speak after can.

7. Could you help me, please?

Could you + base verb is a polite request.

8. You should check your answers.

Should changes the idea into advice.

9. You do not have to bring a dictionary.

No necessity differs from a prohibition.

10. May I leave, please?

May I + base verb asks permission politely.