Guide 1: Read an EWS study example

Try first. Questions 1-5 use the EWS example. Questions 6-10 depend on your resource; models are not claims about it.

1. B. Mala understands, notices, practises and checks one useful idea.

2. Three useful phrases.

3. Unfamiliar. It describes a word Mala does not yet know.

4. False. Her friend understands the message but notices one unclear sentence.

5. Possible answer: It helps her check what she can explain from memory. Other relevant reasons are acceptable.

Guide 2: Use your selected lesson

6. Check: Does the sentence match the chosen section? Example for the EWS passage: Small, repeated practice helps Mala use a new idea.

7. Check each meaning in context or a reliable dictionary. EWS passage examples: polite requests = respectful ways of asking; unfamiliar = not known; progress = improvement.

8. The detail must be supported by the resource. EWS passage example: Mala writes three phrases, in the third sentence. Do not invent a timestamp.

9. Example from the EWS passage: 'First, ... Next, ... Then, ...' New example: First, I read the question. Next, I plan my answer. Accept another accurate pattern and new example.

10. The answer must match the resource. EWS passage example: How many phrases does Mala write? Three. I checked the third sentence. Ask a teacher if your resource is unclear.

Review: Open answers can differ. Check meaning, evidence and clear language. Ask a teacher when unsure.
