Read: The school is opening a lunchtime games corner on Monday. Pupils may borrow a board game at the library desk after leaving their class number with the librarian. Games must stay in the library and be returned before the afternoon bell. The first week is a trial. Suggestions for quieter games are welcome because other pupils will still be reading nearby.

1. What must pupils do before borrowing a game?

2. State two rules about where and when games must be returned.

3. Why are quieter games especially useful?

4. What does trial mean here: a court case, a test period, or a race?

5. Write a 60-80 word suggestion to the librarian. Recommend a suitable game or improvement, explain a reason and mention one rule you will follow.

Use an extra sheet for longer writing if needed. Check the separate guide after your attempt.

Situation: Your class will share a box of storybooks with a younger class. The books need a list, a return date and a safe storage place.

1. Put these steps in a logical order: check returned books; make a list of books; lend the box and record the return date.

2. Change to a polite instruction: Give me the damaged book.

3. Join with so: We wrote a clear return date. Everyone knew when to return the box.

4. Write 80-100 words explaining how to borrow and return the box. Use an opening sentence, ordered steps and one reason.

Use an extra sheet for longer writing if needed. Check the separate guide after your attempt.
