Prepare honest, relevant interview answers

FREE EXTENDED PRACTICE - STUDENT WORKSHEET

Choose a real or imaginary entry-level job. You may use examples from school, volunteering or home responsibilities; do not invent qualifications.

1. Give a 30-second introduction with your present situation, one relevant skill and why this job interests you.

2. The interviewer asks, 'Tell me about a time you solved a problem.' Plan a situation, your action and a result. Choose an example you can explain.

3. You have never used the employer's booking system. Answer honestly and explain a practical way you would learn.

4. Ask two useful questions about the role. Choose questions about duties, training or working arrangements.

Use an extra sheet for longer writing if needed. Check the separate guide after your attempt.

Listen, clarify and improve

FREE EXTENDED PRACTICE - STUDENT WORKSHEET

Practise with a partner. The listener asks follow-up questions rather than requiring the speaker to recite a script.

1. You did not hear the last part of a question. Ask the interviewer to repeat it politely.

2. Improve this weak answer to 'What is a strength you can bring?' 'I am good at everything.' Give one strength and a supporting example.

3. Describe one skill you are developing and one action you are taking. Avoid calling yourself incapable.

4. Practise your introduction again. Record one piece of partner feedback and a revised sentence. End the interview politely.

Use an extra sheet for longer writing if needed. Check the separate guide after your attempt.
