FREE EXTENDED PRACTICE - STUDENT WORKSHEET

Extra oral practice - not part of the 20-mark check. Adult helper: read each instruction aloud. Use real objects. The child need not read or write.

1. Put a book, a pencil and a bag on a table. Listen and point when your helper names an object. Then name one object yourself.

2. Use the colour cards on page 1. Listen and show the card your helper asks for.

3. Listen and do: stand, sit, clap and open or close a book. Use comfortable, safe movements.

4. Count up to five objects with your helper. Then give your helper two objects.

Use an extra sheet for longer writing if needed. Check the separate guide after your attempt.

Friendly words for every day

FREE EXTENDED PRACTICE - STUDENT WORKSHEET

Adult helper: take the other role. Allow time and one neutral repetition. Show a model only after the first attempt. This is additional practice, not an official written test.

1. Greet a friend. Say your name and ask the friend their name.

2. Ask politely for a pencil. Thank the helper when you receive it.

3. Your friend drops a book. Offer to help. Say something kind when you return it.

4. Choose a familiar food or toy. Say one thing you like. Ask the helper what they like.

5. Say goodbye to your helper politely.

Use an extra sheet for longer writing if needed. Check the separate guide after your attempt.

Small listening games

FREE EXTENDED PRACTICE - STUDENT WORKSHEET

Adult helper: use real objects and the hidden messages in the separate guide. Read each short message twice. The child responds by pointing, moving objects or speaking. Do not show the answer guide during the attempt.

1. Game 1: Listen to a short message about a bag and a book. Move the objects as requested.
2. Game 2: Listen to a message about a friend and a fruit. Say the name and fruit you heard.
3. Game 3: Listen to your helper and choose a colour card and a number of objects.
4. Now take a turn as the helper. Give one simple instruction for your partner to follow.
5. Smile and tell your helper one English word or phrase you enjoyed today.

Use an extra sheet for longer writing if needed. Check the separate guide after your attempt.
