මුලින් වැඩපත්‍රය කරන්න. පසුව පිළිතුරු සසඳා වැරදි නිවැරදි කරගන්න.

Open tasks: models show one possible response. Accept other accurate, relevant answers.

1. A locked gate and the requirement to arrange an appointment.
2. Something involving seeds or gardening.
3. Sit at the entrance and tell people they could enter.
4. The welcome already appeared on the sign.
5. The older woman shares family memories, showing that the garden can connect people and personal histories. Accept another supported example.
6. Information can be displayed without making people feel personally welcome; human reassurance makes the invitation meaningful.

Page 2: Build better sentences

1. First person: the narrator uses I.
2. Accept a relevant quotation with a supported explanation; for example, the final sentence highlights the gap between appearance and practical reality.
3. A clear, practical welcome may help more visitors feel comfortable.
4. The gate was opened by volunteers.
5. Although the sign was visible, people hesitated.
6. The effect of the pictures is powerful.
7. It can make the conclusion concrete, emphasise a change and contrast action with an earlier abstract idea.
8. The passage describes four visitors using the garden; it does not prove that every resident felt welcome.
