1. The spoken content should match the printed text. Listen for accurate words, understandable pronunciation, natural phrase grouping and a steady pace. Do not require a particular national accent.
2. For example: A shared study space / can help students / work without interruption. Other meaningful groupings are valid.
3. Keep the intended word forms distinguishable. Study and studies both have two syllables; studies adds a final /z/ sound. Planned ends with the voiced /d/ sound.
4. A valid self-check names a specific change, such as clearer final consonants or fewer unnecessary pauses.

1. A university library's research appointments aimed to build independent study habits, but early positive feedback required cautious interpretation, and plans to gather wider evidence and offer evening sessions recognised that effective support depends on both guidance and practical access.

විශ්වවිද්‍යාල පුස්තකාලයේ පර්යේෂණ මඟපෙන්වීම ස්වාධීන අධ්‍යයනයට උපකාර කිරීම අරමුණු කරගත්තත්, මුල් යහපත් ප්‍රතිචාර ඇගයීමට පුළුල් සාක්ෂි හා පහසු සහභාගී වීමේ වේලාවන් අවශ්‍යය.

2. The model is one sentence and stays within the limit. It mentions independent research habits, limits of early evidence and practical access without claiming improved examination results.
