Try it yourself

1. Deliver a 90-120 second speech about making a shared space welcoming. Use one main message, one developed example and a realistic final action.

2. Ask a partner for two specific comments: one useful choice and one change to try. Deliver the opening again.

Prepare a short speech segment for a real or imagined audience. Connect one clear message with a concrete example and a manageable action. Practise delivering the same idea twice, changing one choice that helps listeners follow it.
එක් ප්‍රධාන අදහසකට උදාහරණයක් සහ කළ හැකි කුඩා ක්‍රියාවක් එක් කර කතා කරන්න.

Your audience helps run a school or community reading space. Some visitors do not know whom to ask for help. You want volunteers to make the first step clearer. A sign alone may not answer every question, and visitors should be able to ask without feeling pressured to speak in front of a group.
අලුත් අයට උදව් ඉල්ලන පළමු පියවර පැහැදිලි කිරීම කථාවේ ප්‍රායෝගික අරමුණයි.

Try it yourself

1. Write one audience-focused opening and one main-message sentence. Avoid promising that every visitor will feel the same way.

2. Plan a brief example showing a volunteer making the first step easier. Include the visitor's option to listen or ask privately.

3. Deliver a short segment using your opening and example. Finish with one action for the next meeting; note one delivery change after feedback.
